

TUSCANY FARMHOUSE VILLA (AGRITURISMO)

The farm produces wine and olive oil. It covers an overall area of 40 acres, much of which is used to grow fodder and cereals. There is also a small herd of Icelandic horses.

The Farm was one of the first farm holiday centers to be opened in Tuscany; it is family run and for over twenty years it has constantly provided outstanding country hospitality.

Extensive gardens surround the farmhouses where our guests may relax or read a book. The farm has rooms with bath and shower, and families and groups of friends will appreciate the home cooking of authentic Tuscan dishes. Dinner is served every evening in the barn or under the stars on the terrace, where a genuine feast of flavours can be had in the company of the other guests who end the day toasting and sharing their travel stories. The terrace offers a fabulous panoramic view over the valley below and is the ideal place to refresh yourself with a bottle of wine. It is possible, to visit the vineyards and walk (5 minutes) to a vantage point giving a panoramic view of San Gimignano.

During wine-tasting sessions, the wines and their characteristics and grape selection cluded in the cost of the always available in Italian and Rooms are available for 4 days stays full for most of April book space very early.

a farm manager will present ristics and talk about pro-methods. This service is in-wine-tasting session and is English.

up to one month. The villa through October. You must

There are two buildings with about 22 bedrooms available. Prices for double room start at $ 95.00 per day For groups, daily tours are available. Also, you may rent a car and journey about Tuscany on your own. The farmhouse villa is located only 33 miles from Florence, 24 miles from Siena, 12 miles from Volterra

